DOROTHY ROSEMAE ADAMS

Playing the violin in Orch. the first 3 yrs. of H. S. kept Dorothy busy. She belonged to Spanish Club and Library Club 3 yrs., to Jr. Hist. Soc. 2, and did Sr. play make-up. Strawberry blonde Dorothy plans college; hopes to teach. English and Spanish were favorite subjects. Her first date with Dick Shannon provided a big thrill. Blue-eyed Dorothy's pet peeve — smoking girls.

JEAN L. BEMIS

Brown-eyed Jean warbled 2 yrs. in Glee Club and 1 in Choir. Petite 5'3" Jean's favorite subject was home living, which will surely come in handy some day. The future plans of this winsome brunette are to finish her music lessons some day. She dislikes people who consider themselves "it". Jean was quiet and not a big talker, but she had her own ideas about everything.

SUZANNE LYNN BERGE

Blonde blue-eyed Sue was active: G.A.A. 4 yrs., Usher Club 3, Jr. Hist. Soc. 2, Student Council 3, Choir 1. Hard-working Sue was art ed. of the bi-weekly DIAL, played caustic Claire in the Jr. play, screw-ball Susie in the Sr. play, and "dramatic-read" in a speech contest (favorite subject). Biggest thrill — the Jr. play. Plans — sec'y, then marriage. Ghastly moment — falling flat when walking with W. C.

BARBARA JOYCE ALLEN

Cute Barb was active in G.A.A. 4 yrs., (Vice-Pres. Jr. yr.), Latin Club 1, Usher Club 2, Jr. Hist. Soc. 2, and reported for the DIAL. Playing Marian in the Jr. play and scouting props for the Sr. one were major activities. In '49 she was Girls' State Governor and '50 brought her greatest thrill, being "Homecoming Queen." Brown-haired Barb's favorite subject — speech. Western Mich. Col. will get our queen.

MILDRED JEAN BICKNELL

Mildred's pet peeve her Sr. yr. was Mr. Crumrine's chemistry tests, but she enjoyed Gov't. and Orch. immensely. Cute, blue-eyed Milly was in G.A.A. 3 yrs., Latin Club 1, Spanish Club 2, Lib. Club 1, and Orch. 4. Mildred's future plans include journalistic study and we know she'll do her best. Just don't ever neglect your violin-playing, Mildred, while writing up that "scoop".

MARJORIE JEAN BEATTIE

That busy gal, Margie, was in G.A.A. 4 yrs., Choir 1. Her pet peeves are show-offs and anklets with high heels. She enjoys dancing and ice-skating with Ellen Loyer. Brown-haired, blue-eyed Margie is an efficient soda jerk at the Book Shop; her future plans look toward travel. Her favorite subjects, math and history. Margie's greatest thrill was owning that class-ring. (Will be graduated in '52).

DORIS EVELYN BUSKIRK

Modest, quiet Doris, with the gentle smile, belonged to F.H.A. her Jr. yr. Deb was not interested in joining many clubs, but spent her time studying and working at home. Home Economics and English proved to be her favorite subjects. This 5'3" lass with the green eyes and brown hair plans to work after graduation.

VARSITY

CHRIS ARNDTS

Christopher, the play boy, enrolled in Jr. Hist. Soc. 1 yr., went out for football 2 yrs., and putted a golf ball around 1 yr. He's a gas station asst. at present; plans to be a salesman. He spent 3 summers at Culver Military Academy and came out a sergeant. A big moment for Chris was the hit he made blowing the bagpipe for "wee Scot."

DONALD J. BREWER

Big Boy Don (6'1") played end at football 3 yrs., won 2 letters; made Honorable Mention on All-State and T. V. teams, and won 3 letters in 3 yrs. of track. He was Dist. Manager for the bi-weekly DIAL, performed a powerful police sergeant in A Full House (Sr. play). He claims that his first touchdown was his major thrill. Works for the A & P, but plans college.

EDDIE BROUGHTON

Syncopatin' Eddie sang on-key bass in Choir 3 yrs., was on the golf team 2 yrs., winning 2 letters. He tried his hand at basketball with the Chevrolet Little Reds. Eddie's favorite subject is English, but he doesn't really crave long assignments. "Loafing is a pretty good job now," he says, "but I plan to go to Trade School after graduation."

HAROLD BAKER, JR.

Blonde, blue-eyed Bud was pres. of his Fr. class and Exchange Ed. for the bi-weekly DIAL. Bud was a 9th and 10th grade member of the Jr. Hist. Soc. He starred 4 years in basketball (3 letters at forward position) and 4 in baseball (4 letters— Co-Capt. 1951). Shy Bud's personal life is a deep secret, even to the DIAL staff members.

SIDNEY G. CATO

Sid, the Kid, played the fitting part of thespian Raimund Brown in the Jr. play, and exercised his vocal chords 1 yr. in Choir. He was Fr. candidate for Student Council sec'y., vice-pres. of Jr. Hist. Soc. Writing up games and creating his sports column Redskin Rambles in the DIAL complete Muscles' activities. Work at the Chronicle, math, and M.S.C. plans suit Sid to a T.

ROBERT BOSTER

Blue-eyed, brown-haired Bob lived up to his peaceful personality by avoiding all the hub-bub of clubs and activities. Serene Bob's pet peeve is the fact that he is always broke. Math proved to be Bob's favorite subject, and his greatest thrill is the end of this school year. Soft-voiced Bob's future plan is to work, if Uncle Sam doesn't interfere. (Will be graduated in '52).

WENDELL D. CHICHESTER

Wendy sang his way thru 4 yrs. of Choir, romped through football 2 yrs. (won 1 letter); basketball 3 (2 letters); baseball 2 (1 letter), and track 3 (1 letter). Well-liked Chi in his Soph. yr. won 3rd place in the T. V. half-mile, and 5th his Jr. yr. Marriage-minded Wendy's greatest thrill was broadcasting over W.B.C.K.; he used his skill and deep voice playing the slick crook in Full House.

BARBARA JEAN BYERS

Cute, blue-eyed Bobbie spent 4 busy yrs. in G.A.A. She refereed basketball, was Co-chmn. of 1950 G.A.A. formal; was in Spanish Club and Jr. Hist. Soc. Busy Barb played French horn in Band and Orch. 4 yrs. She was rep. of the Band at Interlochen in 1950. She loves to dance with steady, Joe, and to bowl.

MARY JEAN COOK

5'5" Mary's favorite teacher was Miss Erskine; and favorite subject a draw between Math and Hist. Seeing girls smoke peeves studious conservative Mary, and playing the organ or piano gives her pleasure. She pals with LaVonna Fox. College-bound Mary was a Latin "Clubber" 2 yrs., and served on the Student Council elections comm. this yr.

MARYLIN ROSE CURTISS

Curt's greatest thrill was her Sr. status. This main office aide was in G.A.A. 4 yrs. (Jr. rep.), Spanish Club 2, Jr. Hist. Soc. 2, sang in Glee Club 1, and worked on Jr. Play stage crew. Marylin was elected D.A.R. girl alternate. She abhors anklets with high heels; loves math and Miss Erskine; Curt's pal, Judy Stiner; she works at State Farm Mutual Ins. Co., is Anderson College (Ind.) bound.

SHIRLEY (Stanley) CAIN

Domesticated Shirley participated in G.A.A. 4 yrs., and faithfully played the clarinet 3 yrs. in Band. Tiny Stan's pet peeve is conceited people; her favorite subject-teacher duo math and Miss Erskine. Becoming a senior was auburn-haired Shirley's greatest thrill; becoming a bride this year, she's exchanged the clarinet for the jingle of pots and pans.

BARBARA LOUISE DAMON

Smiling Bobbie enjoyed commercial subjects and journalism and Choir 1 yr.; plans to do secretarial work followed by marriage. In school, serving at the J-Hop pleased her most, next to her class ring and expansion bracelet. When she was late for history class 1st hr., and Mr. Cunningham asked her if the bus had just arrived, she blushed.

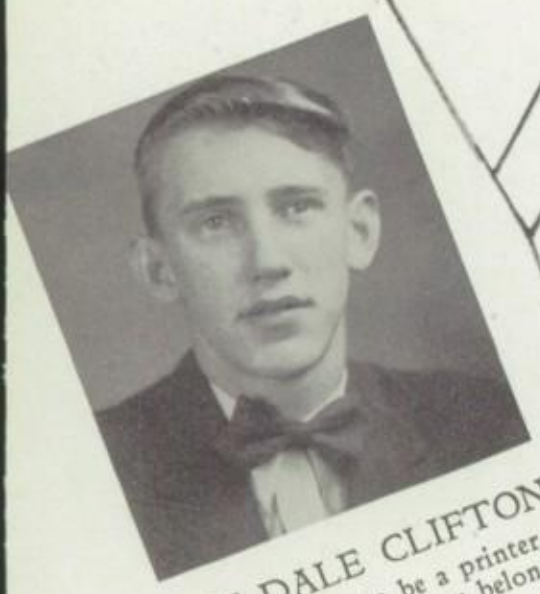
JOYCE ANN CLEMENTS

Friendly Joyce belonged to G.A.A. 3 yrs., Latin Club 2, Jr. Hist. Soc. 1, Student Council 1. Singing in the Glee Club and Choir, playing Cynthia in Jr. play, and stage crew in the Sr. one multiplied her activities. She was high salesman in the Jr. magazine drive. Favorite subjects: Eng. and Gov't. Smiley prizes her stuffed dog (from an admirer). Good times came from the G.A.A. and J-Hop formals. She's college bound.

GAIL DEMOTT

Topsy belonged to G.A.A. 4 yrs., Band 1, Latin Club 1, Spanish Club 2, and Library Club 1. Favorite subject, Spanish; favorite teacher, Miss Kiefer. Gail worked on Jr. play and J-Hop programs. Independent Gail's greatest thrill was receiving her prized diamond from Harold Sachjen. She plans to keep house for Harold, and cook chicken and mashed potatoes for him. Stuck-up girls irk her soul. Job—the Garden Cafe.

VARSITY



JERRY DALE CLIFTON

Six-ft. Jerry plans to be a printer some day. This blonde farmer boy belonged to Jr. Hist. Soc. 1 yr., played a yr. at fullback and end on the reserve football team, and was rewarded with a big M. He was a broad-jumper on the track roster of events for 1 yr. Modest Jerry's pet peeve is silly girls; his favorite subjects, gov't and shop.

RONALD K. DEAN

Good-natured Ronnie belonged to Jr. Hist. Soc. 3 yrs., and warbled in the Choir his Sr. yr. 6'5" tall Ron's favorite subject is study, and his greatest thrill was gov't class (it says here). Pet peeve is sarcastic women; his hobby, candid photography which he does well. His future plans pertain to Navy life, which he will take with a grin.

ROLLAND J. FACE

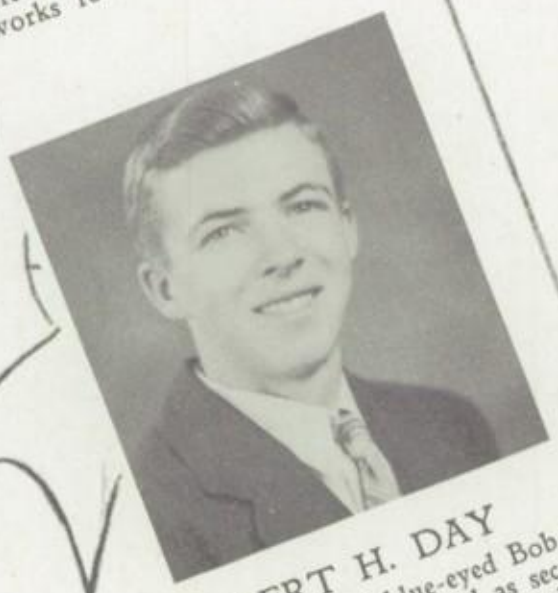
Quiet, brown-haired Rolland spent 4 yrs. in F.F.A.; he plans working on a farm or in a machine shop if the Army doesn't grab him first. His favorite subject in M.H.S. was algebra. Agreeable "Rolly" didn't have an embarrassing moment in school, lucky lad! His pet peeve is women who wear too much make up.

MILO COLLINS, JR.

A future Army man, blue-eyed glasses-adorned Mike cantered along as a mile runner on the track team 4 yrs., winning 2 letters. He played guard on the football team 1 yr. Milo worked on the J-Hop comm. His favorite subject is hist., and younger sisters are his pet peeve. Slender but vigorous Milo works for the Marshall Echoes.

PATRICK FLYNN

Smiley spent 2 yrs. in F.F.A., was in Latin Club 1 yr., Jr. Hist. Soc. 2, and helped on stage crew for the Jr. and Sr. plays. He is a livestock master-showman. Pat's second date was his big thrill, and people who think they fool you really peeve popular Patrick. His plans include law college, another new car, and anything exciting.



ROBERT H. DAY

Quiet brown-haired blue-eyed Bob was in F.F.A. all 4 yrs. and acted as sec. and conductor. He was a member of the Jr. Hist. Soc. his Soph. yr. Robert's favorites are agriculture and art; his future plans—farming, and then working at Postum. Bob is one of the few boys around school who doesn't like girls (we judge by what we see, of course).

NORMAN GARNETT

Fun-loving Ungie belonged to Latin Club his Soph. yr. Designing the cover for Jr. play programs, and working on the J-Hop decoration comm. took up a lot of Norm's time his Jr. yr. Basketball, Norm's greatest thrill, found him watching the Globetrotters play. Hist. and Eng. were his favorite subjects. Now working at the Steak house, Ungie hopes to go to college.

ELLEN M. ELLIS

Winning a poster contest was brown-haired, blue-eyed Ellen's greatest thrill. She belonged to G.A.A. 4 yrs., Spanish Club 2, Library Club 1, Jr. Hist. Soc. 2. Ellen reported for journalism, was on make-up for Jr. play. Giggling girls annoy serene Ellen. Art is her favorite subject. Future plans—college. Steak House waitress Ellen's worst moment — falling down stairs at a dance.

MADELON MARIE FOX

Our piano player, gay and gallant Maddy, accompanied both Glee Club and Choir. G.A.A. was one of her 4-yr. activities. Latin Club her Soph. and Jr. ones, and Jr. Hist. Soc. a Soph. one. She did make-up for the Jr. play and played perfectly the devoted bride Ottily in the Sr. play. Madelon's plans include the study of interior decorating in college.

GWENDELYN M. FREER

Marriage-bound Gwendelyn's pet peeve is seeing girls tripping about on high heels in school. Jr. Hist. Soc. took up some of Gwen's time; unhappily falling down the steps in school proved very embarrassing. Math and typing topped calm, even-tempered Gwen's list of favorite subjects; going steady thrilled her. Gwen works at the State Farm office, since last Dec.

PATRICIA A. FLYNN

Dark-eyed Pat enjoyed sports; she belonged to G.A.A. 4 yrs., Latin Club 1, Jr. Hist. Soc. 2. Pat dislikes boys late for dates; likes Eng, basketball, skating, having fun, and devouring steak and French fries. Pat refreshes the gang at Peck's, and will continue there, she says. This black-haired, lively lass was really thrilled with an "A" from Miss Diehl.

URSULA GALLAGHER

Ambitious Ursula breezed through 4 yrs. of G.A.A., 2 yrs. of Jr. Hist. Soc., was a hard worker in journalism, one of her favorite subjects. 4-H fills a lot of this brown-eyed, brown-haired girl's time, with a trip to the International Livestock Show in Chicago her greatest thrill. Winning a $100 4-H M.S.C. scholarship (General Foods) for baking was a reward for her excellent work.

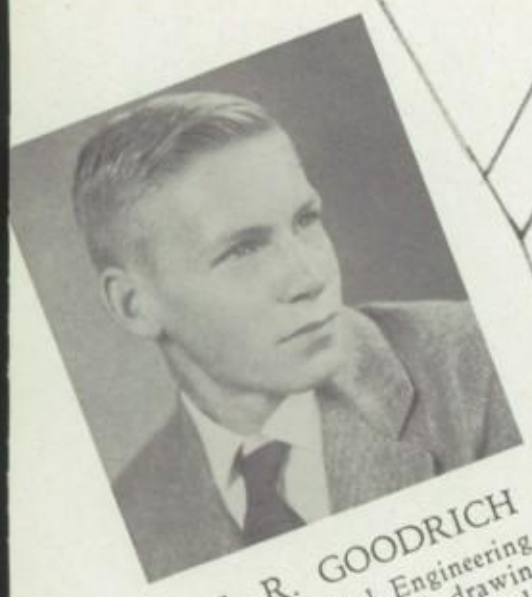
LAVONNA MAE FOX

Mary Cook was dusky-haired, dimpled LaVonna's best pal; although Mr. C. embarrassed her once in class, hist. and math were her favorite subjects. College-bound (she hopes) LaVonna was in G.A.A. 2 yrs., Latin Club 2, Jr. Hist. Soc. 2, and served on Student Council elections. Serious LaVonna's pet peeve is seeing bobbie sox with high heels; she had fun working in Mr. Gray's office.

LOIS GARDINIER

Lois, the lass called Loie, G.A.A.'ed 4 yrs. (class rep. 1), Latin Clubbed 1, Library Clubbed 1 (vice-pres.), helped direct the Jr. play, and toiled tirelessly in journalism. She enjoyed journalism, and acting as Coach Cooper's office girl; loved winning G.A.A. basketball tournaments, sentimental music, and cruising. Serving as nurses' aide at Oaklawn inspired her to consider a nursing career — ending, of course, in matrimony.

VARSITY



EARL R. GOODRICH

Planning Mechanical Engineering, Earl favors math and technical drawing. He did stage crew duties in the Jr. play, and took up journalism in the 12th grade. Favorite pastime, timing the bell with his watch (prized possession). Most embarrassing moment, running out of gas in the country, with his girl. 6' blue-eyed rugged Earl frowns upon silly girls. As for recreation, anything goes.

RALPH F. GOODRICH

Brown-eyed Ralph devoted his only club interests to F.F.A. and Jr. Hist. Soc. his first 2 yrs. of high school. In his last 2, clubs were out. His favorite subjects were mechanical drawing and Am. Hist. Rugged Ralph, who's 5'11" tall, and who has brown hair, rambled placidly through school. His plans see work in some factory looming on his horizon.

JACK CARROLL HENRY

Hustling, bustling Jack was in F.F.A. 4 yrs., Jr. Hist. Soc. 1, Band 1½. Jack's pet peeve — he couldn't keep track of things in Stage Manager work; his greatest thrill, all the kids square dancing; most embarrassing moments, when the kids wouldn't dance. Brown-haired, blue-eyed Jack is all of 68" tall. Jobs: farming, and calling square dances; doughboy plans — Uncle Sam.

MARVIN E. HOTCHKISS

Marv, with the ready smile and the wonderful sense of humor, played Cop Clancy in the Sr. play, (producing his greatest thrill). Math and mechanical drawing are Marv's favorite subjects; he was certainly proud when his sheep won the honor of reserve grand champion at the 4-H Livestock Show in East Lansing. Marvin hopes to become Calhoun Co.'s most up-to-date farmer.

LEON JAMES IDEN

Quiet Jim glided through 4 yrs. of F.F.A. and 2 of Jr. Hist. Soc., and played stage-struck John in the Jr. play. Too much make-up on girls disturb Jim; big thrill—fishing in Canada; Am. Hist., and Mr. Cunningham please him. Jim, who is 5'10" tall, has winsome blue eyes, light brown hair, a bright smile, and a deep voice. He plans to farm for a while.

WILLIAM A. HAWKS

Farmer Bill wants to stay on the farm unless Uncle Sam calls him after graduation. Roller skating at B. C. and ice skating any old place are William's favorite pastimes; acting as F.F.A. Sentinel 4 yrs. kept quiet Bill busy; so did his favorite subject, Algebra. His class ring is husky Bill's prized possession. Bill wilted when his Eng. teacher "called" him for gum chewing.

RICHARD L. INGRAHAM

Husky 6' Dick joined Jr. Hist. Soc. 1 yr., went out for football 2 yrs., played right guard, made All-Twin Valley 2nd team his Sr. yr. Dick dislikes girls who aren't ticklish. Blue-eyed, blonde Dick is planning college if Uncle Sam permits. His favorite subject was hist. — his greatest thrill, passing in chemistry. Dick works as a soda jerk in his dad's Book Store.

ELEANOR HAMILTON

Working at the State Farm Ins. Co. keeps cute Eleanor occupied. Mr. Cunningham often needed her help to win debates in her Soph. and Jr. yrs., and Mr. Rose's office employed her. E.L.H.S. halls were adorned by dark-haired, sparkling-eyed Eleanor her Fr. yr. She was in G.A.A. 2 yrs., F.H.A. 1, Usher Club 1, and was charming Mrs. Pembroke in the Sr. play.

KATHLEEN E. HILL

Kathy, survivor of a major car tragedy, joined G.A.A. 4 yrs. (sec.-treas. 1), Latin Club 2, Usher Club 2 (head usher 50-51), Jr. Hist. Soc. 1; was frisky Miss Freeman in the Jr. play, DIAL reporter, co-director of the Sr. play, sec.-treas. of Sr. class. Enjoyed journalism and Eng.; biggest thrill — attending the J-Hop, formal-clad, on a hospital bed. Everyone loves Kathy.

NORMA HILL

Brown-haired, gray-eyed Norma did a fine job of asst. ed. of the year book. Norma spent 4 yrs. in G.A.A., 1 in F.H.A., 2 in Spanish Club, 2 in Jr. Hist. Soc., was Fr. vice-pres., Soph. pres. and Gen. Chairman of the J-Hop. Norma's greatest thrill was being chosen D.A.R. girl by her Sr. classmates. Culture-loving Norma's favorite subject was Eng., and her plans include a college career.

TIRZAH HARTUNG

Smiling, dark-eyed Tirzah put the accent on work throughout her high-school yrs., spending part of the day her Sr. yr. working at Dodge's. But she also found plenty of time for fun in Choir her Fr. yr., Glee Club and Library Club (Sr. yr.), and G.A.A. all 4 yrs. Tirzah liked her last yr. best, with typing her favorite subject.

PATRICIA M. (Gieske) HOFFMAN

Pat, with the ready smile, belonged to Latin Club 1 yr., Jr. Hist. Soc. 1, Choir 2, and persistently led cheers 3 yrs. Pecia's favorite subject is hist.; she just "can't stand" conceited people. She plans to continue work at State Farm Ins. Co. A very great thrill for Pat was making the cheerleading squad, even though she fell flat during a game.

HARRIET LUCILLE HESS

Dark-eyed Pesky belonged to G.A.A. 4 yrs. (sec.-treas. her Soph. yr.), Jr. Hist. Soc. 3, Usher Club 1. She dislikes girls who tell all after a date; she likes to cruise, to sit in math class, to pal with Nancy Marckley, and to eat steak with French fries. Pesky, who has eyelashes that every girl envies, works at State Farm Ins. Co.; plans to continue there.

PATRICIA E. IRISH

Dark-haired Pat was in F.H.A. 3 yrs. (pres. Jr. yr.), G.A.A. 2, Spanish Club 2, reported for the DIAL, did Jr. play make-up. Pet peeve — girls who chase boys. Future plans—work a while—then marry and live on a farm. Favorite subjects — home ec. and journalism. Pat's greatest thrill, her diamond from Dick. Most ghastly moment—walking into the janitor's room where some boys were dressing.

Made moiselle

RICHARD E. KING

Latin Club member 2 yrs. (Consul 1), Spanish Club 2 (vice-pres. 1), Jr. Hist. Soc. 1, Choir 1, Student Council 2 (sec.-treas. 1), sec.-treas. of his Soph. class, pres. of the '51 Sr. class, acting big parts in both the Jr. and Sr. plays, basketball 4 yrs. (3 letters), track 4 yrs. (4 letters), M.C. of the Sr. Amateur Show; handsome A-student Dick took in stride. He holds the T. V. high and low hurdle records.

EDDIE R. LEE

Lanky Eddie hurled 3 yrs. for the M.H.S. baseball team, winning 3 letters. His future plans include professional baseball (he hopes). Eddie's pet peeve is girls with too many excuses; favorite class, study hall. He is working at Woodlin Metal. Blue-eyed Ed's biggest thrill was making the baseball team; he was most embarrassed to find Tom Sydow in Lover's Lane.

JAMES LIBBRECHT

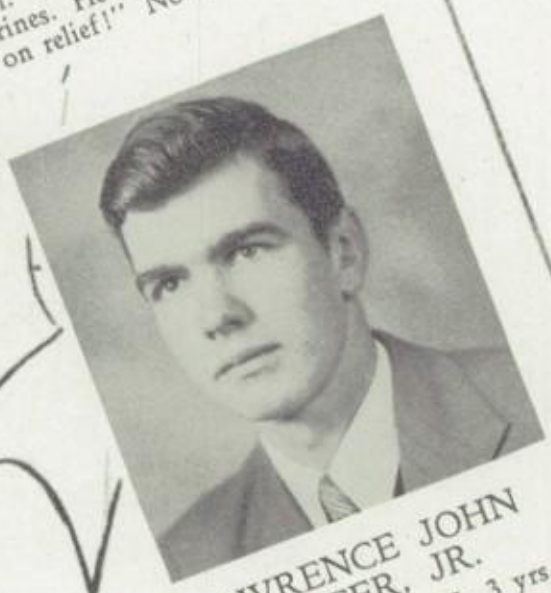
Tall likeable Jim was in Jr. Hist. Soc. Fr. yr., and worked hard to earn a letter as guard in football. "Shiek" Jule's greatest thrill was having Cunningham for hist., even though his favorite subject was bookkeeping. In his spare time, brown-eyed Jim cruised in his Mercury. Jules earns his money at the Crowell Carton Co., and plans to continue there.

RONALD M. KINNE

Ronnie was in football 3 yrs., track 4 (2 letters), and F.F.A. 3 (treas.). Brown-eyed (and we mean beautiful brown) Ronnie's pet peeve is women drivers. Chalk up winning his 1st race in the half mile on the cinder path as his greatest thrill. Future plans include either the Navy or Marines. He enjoyed art class. Says he's employed "on relief!" Now, Ronald!

GEORGE E. LOYER

Hook was pres. of Library Club 1 yr., in Choir 4 yrs., pres. of the Student Council (Jr. yr.), won 2 letters in 3 yrs. of football, 2 letters in 2 yrs. of baseball, played Varsity basketball 3 yrs. (Co-Capt., and made all T. V. his Jr. yr.). Dark-haired, blue-eyed Hook's pet peeve is girls smoking or driving cars. Diane was his greatest thrill; Am. Hist. his favorite subject.



LAWRENCE JOHN KOSTER, JR.

Quiet Larry was in F.F.A. 3 yrs. (vice-pres. his Sr. yr.); was delegate to the National Convention of F.F.A. in Kansas City, Mo., a really inspiring experience. Larry, Jr.'s heart was in Am. Hist., his favorite teacher taught it. He won't marry a girl who overdoes the make-up. No, sir! Nothing thrilled or embarrassed Larry, (according to his questionnaire, anyway).

BILL MILLER

Ambitious Bill was student manager and general "trainer" of Mr. Kay's M.H.S. basketball teams his Jr. and Sr. yrs. His favorite class was typing, and his pet peeve, hard teachers. His present job is loafing, but college is included in his future plans. Bill's greatest thrill came in 1949, when Marshall beat champion Coldwater in basketball.

GWENDOLYN MARJORIE JACKSON

Pretty Gwen was active: a yr. of F.H.A., 4 of G.A.A. (vice-pres. Sr. yr.), 2 of Latin Club (vice-pres. Jr. yr.), 2 in Usher Club, 1 on Student Council, 1 reporting in journalism, portraying a squealing Miss Jones (Jr. play), make-up crew —Sr. play. Gwennie hates stubborn boys; likes math. Greatest thrill, being selected for journalism; most cherished asset, her driver's license. Gwen's future includes nursing and marriage.

DOROTHY M. KIESSLING

English was well-mannered, modest Dorothy's favorite subject all through school, and it will help when she achieves her college plans. Blue-eyed Dorothy was in Choir in her 9th grade, Latin Club 10th and 11th, and F.H.A. 11th. Seeing girls smoke makes serious Dorothy wish they wouldn't do it. She was one of Marshall High's many fine Ceresco native products.

ROLENE E. KIMBALL

This studious little office girl buzzed through G.A.A. 4 yrs., Latin Club 1, Choir 1. Hazel-eyed Rolene's pet peeve is conceited people. Am. Hist. was quiet, poised Rolene's favorite subject. Her plans include business college; biggest thrill in school is actually graduating. Mr. Rose's office won't be the same without faithful Rolene. She knows her own mind, and stands by her beliefs.

BETTY JEAN JONES

Math was ambitious Betty's favorite subject (and she was a math whizz); Miss Erskine, her most cherished teacher. Jonesey was quite embarrassed when she sailed half-way down the alley with the ball while bowling. Ladylike Betty played games in G.A.A. 4 yrs.; was in Jr. Hist. Soc. 1 yr. Office work in the Main Office for Mrs. Hecht gave good-natured Betty a thrill.

VIRGINIA MAE LAMBKA

Virginia, with lovely reddish blonde hair and blue eyes, was in F.H.A. 2 yrs., Choir 1, Jr. Hist. Soc. 2, and G.A.A. 4. A short course at M.S.C. or office work are included in fun-loving Ginny's horoscope; she's clerking now at Morris' 5c, 10c & $1.00 store. The J-Hop her Jr. yr. gave Virginia her biggest thrill. Mr. Gray is tops in teachers; riding horseback, tops in recreation, she says.

AMELIA M. KATZ

Poised and pretty Amelia says her greatest thrill was making journalism as a reporter for the bi-weekly DIAL. F.H.A. 3 yrs. and G.A.A. 1 filled this fair lass's time. Being called Kitten is a pet peeve, also girls who smoke; Am. Hist. and Mr. Cunningham were her choice of subject-teacher combinations. Possibly business school, and then marriage are on her agenda.

DONNA LAPHAM

Donna, fair-haired and sweet-smiling, waltzed through F.H.A. 1 yr., G.A.A. 4, Latin Club 2, Usher Club 3 (asst. head usher Jr. yr.), Jr. Hist. Soc. 2, Student Council 1; vice-pres. Jr. class, asst. ed. bi-weekly DIAL, attendant in Queen's Court (2 yrs.), juvenile lead in the Jr. play Stardust. Winsome Donna, a car-train wreck casualty, is a soda-jerk as of now, a nurse as of the future.

Mr. Dial Editor's program; Spanish Club 2 yrs., Jr. Hist. Soc. 2, Jr. and Sr. play performer deluxe, football 4 yrs. (won 1 letter), Boy's State, Jr. Rotarian, Exchangeite, chair. of the Jr. Magazine Drive, shoe salesman supreme. "Moose" plans college or Naval Air Force. Don't steal handsome Jack's scissors! Never will he forget how, after asking a girl to go steady, he couldn't get his ring off!

GEORGE MORGAN

Tall blonde George belonged to F.F.A. 4 yrs. (sec. his Sr. yr.) and to Jr. Hist. Soc. 2. Any kind of math fascinated George, especially trig. 6'1" George's pet peeve is girls who are in a rage. Working in the mail room at the Enquirer-News occupied most of George's spare time. His future plans: working for the man who will pay him the most money.

ARLON MYERS, JR.

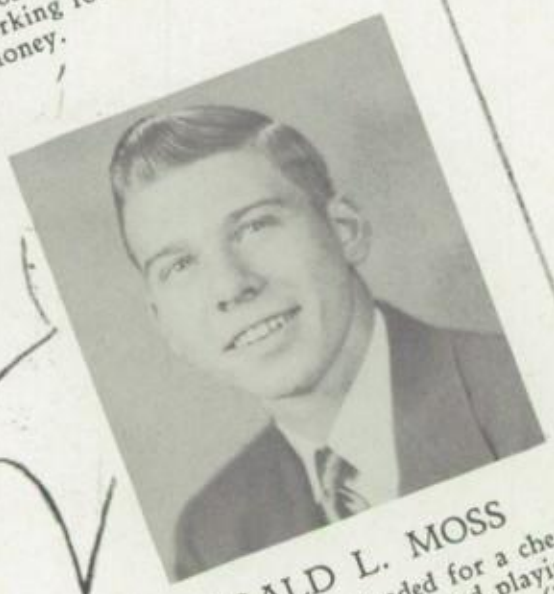
Bashful, blushing Arlon joined F.F.A. in the 11th and 12th grades, played French horn in Band 9th and 10th. He was gym asst. 4 yrs. His favorite subject is gov't., and his future plans incorporate work on a farm. Brown-haired, brown-eyed Arlon doesn't care for girls. His greatest thrill came when a certain girl sat next to him at Peck's. (Now explain that paradox, reader; we can't).

ALFRED J. NAGEL, JR.

Athletic Gus belonged to Jr. Hist. Soc. 2 yrs., played forward and guard on the basketball team 4 (won 2 letters), played baseball 4, pitched, played 1st base, and outfield. Co-Capt. his Sr. yr. (4 letters). Pet peeve, students who smoke. Future, college or — Korea; favorite subject, hist.; greatest thrill, scoring 22 pts. at Albion. Bud has "China" blue eyes and blonde hair; works at his Dad's Bargain Store.

RUSSELL PALMER, JR.

F.F.A. pres. this yr, brown-eyed Russ ended his 4 yrs. in that organization with distinction, and he joined Jr. Hist. Soc. 1. Russ is now working at the S. S. Kresge Co. and plans to keep this job after his graduation. Being kicked out of the library study hall proved embarrassing to usually quiet math-loving Russ.



GERALD L. MOSS

Scientific Moss is headed for a chemical engineering career. He enjoyed playing eccentric Prof. Bach in the Jr. play (he was "super"); joined Spanish Club 2 yrs., played basketball 2 (won a reserve letter at guard), and was Ed.-in-chief of this yearbook. Romance overtook Gerry in his Sr. yr. easing his heavy academic burden a great deal.

LYLE PAUL

Hose, sturdy little survivor of a car-wreck, played half-back on the football team 4 yrs., winning his letter during his Sr. yr. Lyle also earned 2 letters sprinting around the cinder track. He was in F.F.A. his Fr. yr. and Jr. Hist. Soc. his Fr. and Soph. yrs. 5½ ft. Lyle enjoyed algebra most; plans include work, or serving Uncle Sam.

JOAN GAY LESTER

Jo, with big dusky eyes and husky voice, giggled her way through 4 yrs. of G.A.A. activities, and tootling the clarinet in band (her best beloved subject). She joined Library Club her Fr. yr., and Jr. Hist. Soc. 2 yrs. Though working regularly at Hemmingsen's, she found time to plan for and dream of college. People's old jokes irk this raven-haired lassie.

ALICE I. MILLER

Brown-eyed Alice belonged to the Library Club 2 yrs. and played drums in Band (9th grade). She plans to work at State Farm Ins. Co. (which she is doing now), then marriage. Her most embarrassing moment was hurrying around a corner, bumping into a teacher. Gov't. and hist. are her two favorite subjects. Her most prized possession is Jim's class ring. Alice's pet peeve is girls smoking.

VIRGINIA RUTH MILLER

Vivacious Ginny added her blonde beauty to G.A.A. 4 yrs., Latin Club 1, Jr. Hist. Soc. 3. Being a fluttery juvenile in the Jr. play was Ginny's greatest thrill; cruising with Barb Byers, her favorite pastime. "5 ft. - 2, eyes of blue" Ginny likes to ice-skate, play basketball, and attend English class. "Ruthless" sells shoes at Miller-Jones at present and plans to continue there.

GLADYS ANN LINDSEY

Gladys, our southern belle, came from way down in Mississippi to Marshall High during her Jr. yr. Girls' activities didn't appeal to Gladys; however, she played inter-class basketball 1 yr. This hazel-eyed girl liked typing better than any other subject, and plans to be a telephone operator. She just can't get used to us Northerners' kidding her about "huh Southern accent."

GLORIA JEAN MORRIS

Our 5'4" red-haired bookkeeper for M.H.S. was a member of the G.A.A. 4 yrs., Library Club 1, and enjoyed Shorthand, her favorite subject. Gloria's prized possession is her class ring; her most embarrassing moment, when Mr. Cunningham called her to the office over the P.A. system. Future plans for ambitious, sensible Gloria include office work, then marriage to the right man.

NANCY LOU MARCKLEY

Nancy Lou, with the deep sparkling eyes, joined G.A.A. 4 yrs. and Jr. Hist. Soc. 2. Cute Nancy dislikes catty girls; loves pretty clothes. Her greatest thrill was staging a good J-Hop or playing flighty Daphne in the Sr. play. Favorite recreation—dancing. Nan pals with Harriet Hess. Future plans look toward business school or work; at present, loafing occupies her free time.

ELSIE M. MYERS

Bound for W.M.C. is Elsie of the creamy complexion and gorgeous eyes. She plans to be a nurse. G.A.A. 2 yrs., Jr. Hist. Soc. 1, Glee Club 1—her clubs. Being elected to the Queen's Court her Fr. and Soph. yrs., and playing haughty Mrs. Fleming in the Sr. play were her greatest thrills. She was embarrassed when a certain someone came to call and the dogs jumped and barked at him.

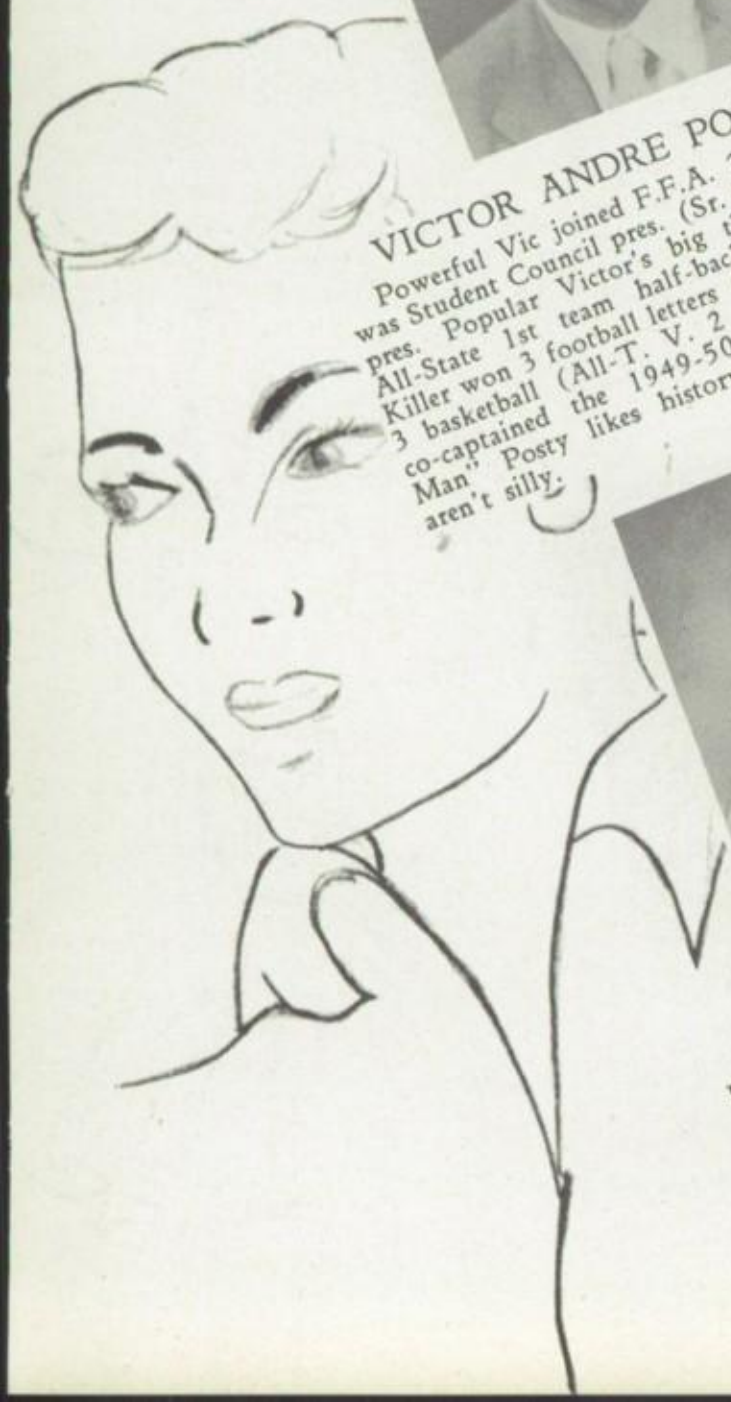
VARSITY

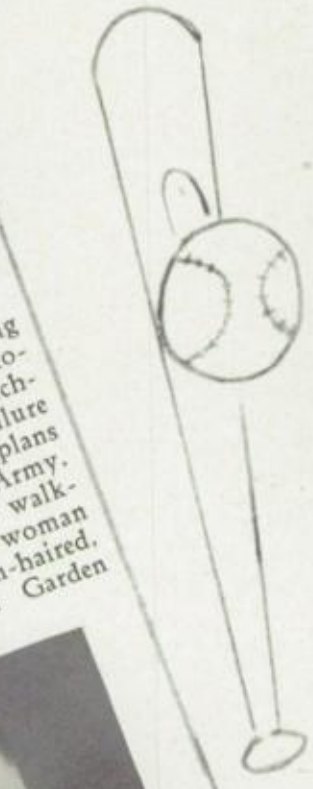
MELVIN O. PEMBERTON

Mel treasures his class ring. He sang in choir 3 yrs., and enjoyed playing saxophone in concert and bass drum in marching Band, 4 yrs. His pet peeve is failure to find time alone with girls. Mel plans to sleep for a year, and then — Army. His most embarrassing moment was walking down the aisle dressed like a woman in the Sr. pep meeting. Brown-haired, hazel-eyed Pem works at the Garden Theater.

VICTOR ANDRE POSTULA

Powerful Vic joined F.F.A. 2 yrs., Choir 2; was Student Council pres. (Sr. yr.), Soph. vice-pres. Popular Victor's big thrill was making All-State 1st team half-back (on 2 polls). Killer won 3 football letters (All-T. V. Sr. yr), 3 basketball (All-T. V. 2 yrs.), 3 track. He co-captained the 1949-50 cagers. "Hunk-o-Man," Posty likes history, admires girls who aren't silly.





NORMAN PHILLIP RAPP

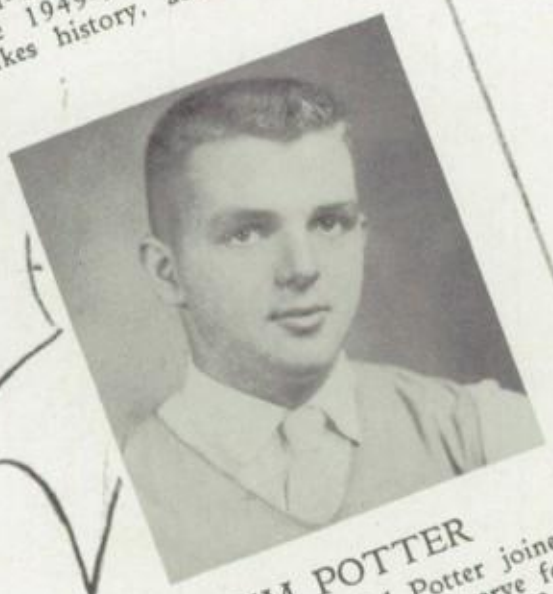
"Baldy" was in F.F.A. 2 yrs., played guard on the football team 3 yrs. His pet peeve is girls, but his greatest thrill was his first date. Now you figure that one out. He works part-time at Hemmingsen's and plans to be a master-craftsman carpenter some day. Norm has personality, deep dark eyes, a girl, and many friends.

MELVIN ROMACK

Red's greatest thrill is actually wearing that cap and gown and clutching that diploma. He plans to join the Navy soon. People who brag disgust him. Mrs. MacVean's art was green-eyed Melvin's favorite subject. Working in McNall's Bakery gave this bright-haired lad his spending money, and kept his sweet tooth satisfied, no doubt. But the Navy eats beans, Red.

DAVID C. SCHULTZ

Cap'n Dave played left guard on the football team 3 yrs., winning 2 letters, making the 1950 All-T. V. grid squad, and being elected M.H.S. captain. Likeable Davie spent 3 yrs. with the F.F.A., and 2 with the Choir, co-directed the Sr. play. Broad-shouldered David says school is easy; he plans college or the U. S. Army. Placid Dave weighs up meat (at $1.15 per lb.) at the A. & P.



JIM POTTER

Painless and playful Potter joined Jr. Hist. Soc. 2 yrs., played reserve football 2 yrs. (end and tackle), baseball 2, Intramural basketball 4; Jim's pet peeve is being always broke. Favorite subject, math. Greatest thrill was passing Mr. Crumrine's chemistry. Job—Miller-Jones' Shoe Store. Future — marriage, working on the railroad, or the Army. Lucky Jim never had an embarrassing moment!

JACK SHERMAN

Tranquil Jack's list: Spanish Club 2 yrs., Jr. Hist. Soc. 2, Student Council 4 (vice-pres. 1), Debate 4, Speech Contest 2, snare-drummer in Band 4, sec.-treas. (9th grade), pres. (11th grade), Bus. Mgr. of this year-book, pitcher in baseball 3 yrs. (1 letter), aspiring young playwright in the Jr. play, comical cop in the Sr. play. FREE PRESS agent "Sherm the Germ" M.C.'ed many assemblies, too.

MARJORIE ANN MYERS

Brunette Marj, the super-student, breezed through Latin Club 2 yrs., F.H.A. 1, G.A.A. 4, Jr. Hist. Soc. 1, Student Council 2 (vice-pres. 1), and journalism. A lead in the Jr. play completed Brownie's activities. Topping her pet peeve is untruthful people. Marj plans to attend Albion College. Her favorite subject, Latin. Blue-eyed, 5'5" Miss Myers (Marj, Marjie) is employed at McLellan's Dime Store, B. C.

SUSAN J. QUICK

Breaking dishes on her Oaklawn Hospital job is Susan's pet peeve. Susie Q. was a member of the F.H.A. (10th grade), Jr. Hist. Soc. (10th and 11th), G.A.A. all four. Studious brown-haired, blue-eyed Susan made a hit as the Dean of Women in the Jr. play. She won special honors in 11th grade of attending Girls' State. Susie Q. plans to attend business college.

ANNABELLE ROBERTSON

Blue-eyed, brown-haired Ann spent her 2 yrs. at M.H.S. in G.A.A. only. Coming here her Jr. yr. from Kellogg Ag., Ann reports that she likes shorthand, but dislikes boys who insist on pulling her bandanas off her head. Nursing school in Battle Creek will open its portals for Ann this coming year. A swimming catastrophe brings blushing memories.

MARIAN PATTON

"You're Breaking My Heart" leads musical Marian's hit parade; she has been a member of G.A.A. all 4 yrs., of F.H.A. 1, Spanish Club 1, and Jr. Hist. Soc. 3. Playing her clarinet in Orch. 2 yrs. and Band 4 have kept dark-brown-haired Marian busy and sometimes bothered. Unless fate prevents, she will be a beauty operator, and should make a good one. Favorites: Band and gov't.

JOANNA (Williams) ROYER

Choir-loving Joanna's pet peeve was people cracking gum in her ear; was she embarrassed when Mr. Cunningham made her blush in Am. Hist.? G.A.A. 3 yrs., Glee Club 2, and Choir kept Jo's school days busy; working at Peck's, her evenings, when she isn't with Frank at home. Blue-eyed Joanna with a smile for everyone, became Mrs. Frank Royer late last summer.

DIANE PLUSHNICK

Artistic Diane plans college at Mich. State, then an art career. English was her favorite subject. Soft-spoken Diane belonged to F.H.A. (10th), Latin Club (9th and 10th), Usher Club (11th and 12th), Jr. Hist. Soc. (9th), and was year-book Art Editor. She is 5'3½" tall, has gorgeous brown hair and eyes. Diane's pet peeve is any high school girl who smokes.

DONNA MAY SIMS

Bright-eyed Donna has been in G.A.A. 4 yrs. (Sr. rep.), Latin Club 1, Usher Club 2, Jr. Hist. 1. She carried the flag for the Band 1 yr.; was chmn. of the election comm. (Sr. yr.). Playing soulful Stella Brown in the Jr. play was sweet-smiling Donna's great thrill. Her pet-peeve, ankle socks with high heels; favorite subject — literature; she plans nurse's training.

JAMES STEVENS

Handsome black-haired Jim joined F.F.A. his Fr. yr. and Jr. Hist. Soc. his Soph. yr. In journalism he held the position of Photograph Editor on the yearbook. Dark-eyed Jim works faithfully at Dodge's Dime Store, but his future plans include college. His pet peeve is girls who smoke; mathematics and Miss Erskine were his favorites.

TOM SYDOW

Cute Sy spent 2 yrs. in Latin Club (sec.-treas. 1), 3 yrs. on the golf team (3 letters), and was the power behind the hammer and saw for the Sr. play set. Tom wants a furnace business (like his dad's) of his own some day. Evasive girls who make excuses head his pet peeve list. Being chased from Lover's Lane heads his "red-faced" moments. Sy's handsome! !

JAMES VAN DYKE

Gov't-loving Jim hailed from Dimondale, Mich. his Sr. yr. Jim played football 4 yrs., won 2 letters, (guard for M.H.S.); basketball 2 yrs., and baseball 2. Having the police pick up his car for "stolen" accounts for blue-eyed Jim's most befuddled moment. Graduating was college-minded Jim's greatest thrill; having his name on every page of the biweekly DIAL irked him.

JOE P. STINE

Joe Pete returned to M.H.S. this yr. after 4 yrs. in Omaha, Nebr. He played football 3 yrs. (1 letter); won fame in 1950 on a blocked punt! Placid Joe was a pompous butler in the Sr. play. He likes sleeping, swimming, sleeping, eating ice-cream, and sleeping. An A in English thrilled this 6'2" lad with the microphone voice and easy manner.

EDWARD VOLSTROMER

Quiet likeable Ed spent 4 yrs. working in F.F.A. as a reporter. Agriculture was Ed's favorite subject and big wheels, his pet peeve. Palling with Bill Kincaid and Ronnie Kinne took up most of his spare time, when he wasn't working at the Morris 5 and 10 as stock boy. Graduation is Ed's main objective, since it provides both his greatest thrill and future plans; then it's up to Uncle Sam.

DAVE SUNDAY

Butterfly belonged to F.F.A. his Sr. yr., Jr. Hist. Soc. 3 yrs., played baritone in Band 3, sang in Choir 2, proof enough of Dave's musical ability. Tall lanky Dave's pet peeve is being called Butterfly. Having his car break down in Eckford, and getting Bev out of bed so as to use her telephone was Dave's painful moment. Farming is Dave's job now, but he plans to enter the Army, then to J. B. Sheet Metal.

NORMAN E. WALTERS

Nature Boy Norm loves to camp and spend his leisure time out of doors. He plans to work and travel to "far away places with strange sounding names." He liked chemistry more than he enjoyed girls. One can always find Norm at Kroger's, busily involved with canned goods. Buying cars or guns is just an every day occurrence to him.

JUDY ANN STINER

Judy was drum majorette her last 3 yrs. in M.H.S., head twirler (she's an expert) the last 2. She was a 4-yr. G.A.A. girl—sec.-treas. her Jr. yr., pres. her Sr. yr. Latin Club 2 yrs., Usher Club 2, Jr. Hist. Soc. 2, vice-pres. of the Sr. class, stage crew (Jr. play) kept brown-eyed Judy scurrying. Going with Dick gave Judy her greatest thrill.

CONNIE VISEL

Connie plans to be a model housewife for her Bill. She had 4 yrs. G.A.A., and 1 of Choir (12th). Slender Connie favors gym and commercial courses. Greatest thrill was receiving her diamond. She dislikes "show offs". Her free time is spent with Bill. She is a 5'3" brunette with hazel eyes. A moment to remember: ripping her skirt in a school room.

NORMA WEERS

Blonde Norm was in G.A.A. 4 yrs., Latin Club 1, Library Club 1, reported for the DIAL, was asst.-director for the Jr. play; and stuffy Auntie in the Sr. play. Norm's favorite pastime, cruising in her Crosley; plans work at Simons-Robert Ins. Agency, then marriage. Feeding chocolate-covered soap to some boys, and sharing with Tom Sydow a "blow" from Mr. Lowell were high school hi-lites.

PATRICIA A. SWALWELL

Pat was a member of F.H.A. in 10th grade, Latin Club and Jr. Hist. Soc. in 9th and 10th grades, did Sr. play make-up. Soft-spoken Pat's favorite subject is English; and she plans college in the future. Fountain service at Peck's Drug Store kept pretty Patricia from wasting out-of-school time, and made her school-mates realize how really good natured she is.

DONNA WENDORF

Favoring math, ambitious Donna plans Nurse's Training. In the past 4 yrs., she was allied with G.A.A. in the 9th grade, Latin Club and Choir in the 10th, and Library Club in the 11th. Her major grudge — "Boys who come late for dates." She measures 5'6", has blue eyes and brown hair. Her part-time job has been behind the fountain at Hemmingsen's.

VIRGINIA M. TECH

Band was graceful, willowy Vudge's favorite subject for 4 yrs.; she played her clarinet. 5'4" Virginia exercised in G.A.A. 3 yrs., was in Orch. 1 yr., played a stage-struck tyro in the Jr. play. Falling down in M.H.S. halls jolted busy Virginia's poise, and being Mavis in the Jr. play thrilled her no end. Vivacious Vudge plans work, then marriage.

JOY LORRAINE WILLIAMS

Joy, with the good-natured smile and amiable ways, enjoyed art and geometry. Selling sweet rolls and other bakery products for her Dad was her side-line. Joy belonged to the Library Club 3 yrs., was acting pres. 1. Obtaining that diploma thrilled her; her first date made her nervous. She expects to continue helping at William's Super Bakery.

VARSITY

JOYCE AUDREY WILLIAMS

Music lover Joyce with soft red hair and bashful smile was in Jr. Hist. Soc. 2 yrs., F.H.A. 1, Latin Club 1, Spanish Club 1, Library Club 1, Choir 1, Orch. 1, and Band 4. She plays the flute, and is good. Joyce served on the ticket comm. for the Jr. play; on the program comm. for the J-Hop. She loves music and English; expects to attend college.

JANET LOU WILSON

Blonde blue-eyed Janet came to Marshall her Jr. yr. "Willy" belonged to G.A.A. 4 yrs., was an usher her Sr. yr. (her greatest thrill), and played a hard-boiled girl in the Sr. play. Slim Janet was most embarrassed when she fell up the school stairs. Her pet peeve is gossips; her favorite subject, hist. Future holds college, and then marriage.

DOROTHY (Smith) WINTER

Athletic Dottie spent 2 yrs. in G.A.A. after transferring to M.H.S. from Howell in her Jr. yr. This bouncing lass with brown hair and brown eyes became a bride this last summer and spends most of her time perfecting her household skills. Academic duties had to be relegated to 1 hr. a day in favor of domestic ones. Dottie has a happy smile always.

HARVEY WEATHERWAX

Towering blonde Scoop played Hollywood agent, Jerry Flannigan, in the Jr. play; belonged to the Jr. Hist. Soc., and to the journalism crew; his favorite subject was math. Girls that smoke on the street shock "Shorty". When not working as a soda jerk in Hitchens' Drug Store, he usually dawdles about with Ungie or Johnny. Plans include college, if the Army permits.
